Ched Clark

March 9, 2011

Ched Clark, age 70, a long-time resident of Dublin, Ohio, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, March 9, 2011 at St. Ann's Hospital. Ched was born in Pittsburgh, PA to the late Edward Wilson and Mary K. Clark. A retired mechanical design engineer, Ched was proud to have been the Project Manager for the building of The Ohio State University's Schottenstein Center. He was a professional member of the American Society of Plumbing Engineers, the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration & Air Conditioning Engineers and served on the City of Columbus Heating Board. Ched was a member of Riviera Country Club and past president of the Mid-Ohio Austin Healey Car Club. He will be sadly missed by his high school sweetheart and wife of 49 years, Nancy; his two sons: Chris, of Delaware, Ohio and Randy Clark, of Radnor, Ohio; his sister Cynthia Clark (John) Condrack, of Mt. Gretna, PA; his brothers: Roger Clark, of Richmond, VA and Richard Lee (Randi) Clark, of The Plains, VA; and his seven nieces and nephews. At Ched's request, no services were held but donations in his memory can be made to the National Kidney Foundation of Ohio, 2800 Corporate Exchange Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43231 www.kidney.org or a charity of your choice. A special thank you to the Davita Dialysis Center of Dublin for your loving assistance and kindness. Rutherford Funeral Home at Powell, 450 West Olentangy St., Powell, OH 43065 (614)-792-1471, is assisting the family. Send condolences for the family to: www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com.

PS

Ched finally "gets" what Nancy has been writing about and trying to tell him. May he revel in his newfound Joy, Love, and Peace. And may Peace overwhelm Nancy, Chris, and Randy in this time of need.
