I remember Carol, from when I would help her when she showed her horse, and later, babysit for her son, Steven. She had a great sense of humor. ❤️ RIP friend

I cannot believe my dear friend will no longer be calling to tell me how her beloved hockey team played or talk about my tiny little Harlow pup whom she dearly loved spending time with. I have so many wonderful memories of years past that I will carry within my heart forever. She was worried about me when I spent 4 months in the hospital last year. I will look forward to the day we are together once again in Heaven. My sincere condolences to her beautiful family whom she was so proud of.
