“ Mrs.Meier as I always called her,she will always hold a special place in my heart. Even after I was injured and couldn't work she would call me , send me cards and always was concerned how I was doing, I would stop in for a visit she always cared how I was getting along, we had alot of conversations over the years,one thing I know for sure she had a very caring heart and she had a great love for all of her family,I will miss her calls and cards and her caring heart, I feel very blessed that God brought us together and I know I will see her in heaven,to all her family my prayer is for fond memories and a peaceful heart.

“ I am so fortunate that who was once Marcia Meier has now been Marcia Wilson for some time! Joan Meier and I, however, got off to a rather awkward start! You see, Marcia and I had met at work back in Virginia, and soon entered into a dating relationship. As things steadily progressed I eventually introduced myself to the Meier family via the U.S. Postal service, which they all warily found rather odd! Still when I finally came to Ohio, it was Joan who gave me the fairest shake. This was the beginning of what later became a Mother-in-Law / Son- in- Law relationship. Moreover, a light-hearted friendship developed, based on a mutual love for Marcia, periodic phone calls to discuss the Buckeyes, and Joan's insistence on a couple of great family outings to Atlantic beaches. Each time her sharp wit and charm ensured we all had a great time! Later, traveling from Florida and back to honor Joan's 90th Birthday was a unique and memorable experience that Marcia and I cherish!

Late in life, despite many medical challenges which could have overwhelm many lesser persons, Joan continued to retain much of her generosity, grit, and charm. An agile mind, a strong will, and a persevering spirit defined her!

Joan's life has been an inspiration to all of us who knew her best. Well done Joan!

“ Grandma,

I miss you so much! I will always have lots of wonderful memories ... summers on Linworth Rd, spending time outdoors with all the animals, picking veggies in the garden, going to your work at the Children's store, going to the laundry mat with you, filling up the orange water coolers and many many more! Grandma, you were always so caring and thoughtful. You will always be forever in my heart. I love you! Lisa
