“ I worked for Marian for almost 10 years up until her retirement. She was smart, disciplined and a great boss. She was the first women elected to a senior officer position at Nationwide and was determined to be successful so other women could follow in her path, she very much succeeded.

May she rest in peace.

“ Marian was a professional, a mentor, a wonderful friend and so much more. I am honored to have known her and shared so many wonderful memories with her. I can smile, even laugh a bit, thinking about the 3 page single spaced set of instructions on grooming a horse that she had prepared and emailed to me days before our first ride together. I remember her thorough but patient walk thru of each step the morning I walked in to the barn. Marian was as detail oriented as they came! I remember her icing her legs before and after each ride. No sacrifice was too great for a day on her horse! I remember lunches and dinners filled with great stories, friends and wine.

Marian never forgot a birthday, an anniversary or even a name day! I loved it when she would ask each year...”now how many years have you had this name?”.

She was one of a kind and will never be forgotten! Marian, I hope you were greeted at heaven’s gates by a heard of horses and the purrs of the kitties that crossed over the rainbow bridge ahead of you!
