“ I never met Phyllis in person but we connected on social media through her niece Angela. Phyllis also connected on social media and face time with my daughter and her husband Elisa and John. We shared laughs and stories about pets and things on the news. She must have been a wonderful human being if Angela loved her so much! We will miss you Phyllis. Rest well.

“ My prayers are with the family of Phylliss. I am her ex sister in law, I always thought a lot of Phylliss and enjoyed talking to her when I saw her. I remember after I first started dating her brother she bought me a necklace with a rose on it for my Birthday, I still have it. She will be missed. May you dance with the angels, JoAnn McGuire
