“ Dearest Gisele,
We were sorry to learn that Quong had passed away. We always looked forward to seeing him (and his smile!) at McConnell. With his gentle ways he was a role model, encouraging all of us to do better in our exercise, and in life.

We are sending you healing love and prayers.

“ Quong was a special guy. He proudly served in the United States Air Force. He enjoyed life and was most happy when surrounded with good friends and family. He loved to joke around and laugh and make sure everybody else felt good. He loved his wife and family and showed special devotion in the way he helped his in-laws (Mother-in-law, Barbara and Sister-in-law, Christiane) come to America and taking care of them after they came. In sickness and in health he was always there for them.

He loved to travel and saw a lot of the world. He always had interesting stories to tell. He was a good listener too! He and Gisele were always treating friends to dinner at a favorite restaurant. He always made good menu choices for you if you weren't sure what to order. There are a lot more good things that could be said about Quong. But, saying he was a good, kind, caring human being sums it up pretty well. He was the perfect Brother-in-law. He will be always be remembered and sorely missed.

“ I am sending my condolences to the family of Quong Gin. He had an infectious smile and his smile led others to smile too! Gisele and Quong were dedicated to each other, as an acquaintance of them from McConnell, you could see how much they loved and cared for one another. Gisele, your kindness was so appreciated by those around you. You inspired me to treat others as you have treated those around you. Thoughts and prayers will be with you and your family during these difficult days ahead and every day.

“ My Dear Friend Gisele - I was so heartbroken to hear of Quong's passing. Please know that I am thinking of you during this time. The last time I saw Quong was when you and he came for New Year's Day 2008, to spend the day and have a meal with me and Barbara and her family from England. We had such a good time that afternoon and I still remember it vividly. Quong was always a knowledgeable person to talk with. I know that you will miss him very much. And you were a joy for him too. My prayers and thoughts go with you. Love, Sharon “ Gisele, I am so sorry about the loss of Quong! My heart goes out to you! I am sending you hugs, thoughts and prayers! I will always remember Quong when we went on the casino trip to Wheeling, West Virginia and the time I picked you and Quong up at the hospital! Quong was such a nice man! If you need anything let me know. I will not be able to make it to the visitation or the funeral due to my health but my spirit will certainly be with you! May God be with you during this time of sorrow! Love and prayers, Jo and Belinda
