“ Just learned of Steve's death. What a character he was. There was always laughter when he was around. I worked and partied often with Steve. Rest in Peace Buddy.

“ Steve was one of those rare people that could make everyone feel like they were his friend. Whether assisting with a listing, giving each other a hard time, training a newbie or just having that warm smile of his for us, he made us all feel special. Steve you are a legend and the office will never be the same. I will miss you deeply. Sarah Girard

“ Steve and I had a lot of fun at work. We loved to tease each other, give each other a "hard time", but, like others have said, he always made it easier to do my job. He focused on each person he was helping, until they got the job done.

Steve and I had a similar 'outlook' on the world as well, so it was fun to talk with someone who could laugh at the same things!

I know Steve will be missed but I am glad I got to spend the time with him that I did.

“ I still can't believe Steve is gone. I remember when Steve was hired. He was so patient with us even when he probably wanted to choke us! There was nothing he wouldn't do to help us. I've called him from Florida during the winter and from my house, he was always there to help me and make me feel like I was the only person he had anything to do for. I loved talking to him when he could spare the time. The last time I saw him we talked at the front desk, I remember saying goodbye as the phone rang, I said I'll see you later, not ever thinking I'd never see him again. The office will not be the same without him.
