“ Masson was like another Father to me while I was growing up in Chillicothe in the 50's and 60's. He was fair but stern but he was also funny. Gary and I got into some trouble as teenagers, and Mason and my Dad(Donald Wright) got us out, with a little help from Simmy Harris. We paid for it and we understood what we did was wrong. It took time but I got back his respect in me and a lesson I'll never forget. I'll always remember big Mason as a great and wonderful man to me.
