

Abe Maxwell

February 9, 2008

Abe Forest Maxwell-husband, father, grandfather, uncle, friend. Born August 15, 1932 in Waynesville, N.C. to Forest and Rosalie Maxwell. Died February 9, 2008. He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Elladene Maxwell; son, Kevin Maxwell (Wendy Berg); daughter, Kimberly Maxwell (Steve McGroarty); granddaughters, Kyla and Erin McGroarty. A graduate of Wake Forest College with a BS, and Duke University with an MS and PhD in Chemistry. Employed by and retired from Chemical Abstracts Service. He embraced life with a joyful exuberance, optimism and a big smile. In a lifelong quest for knowledge, he especially loved history and enjoyed involvement over many years with the Worthington Historical Society. A celebration of his life will be held at Rutherford Corbin Funeral Home, 515 High Street, Worthington at 2:00 on Sunday, February 17th. Visitation will be held an hour before the service. Instead of flowers, the family suggests a contribution in his memory to The Worthington Historical Society, 50 West New England Avenue, Worthington, Ohio, 43085, or the American Cancer Society.
