

Adam Stevenson IV

March 29, 1940 - January 27, 2025

Adam Stevenson IV, 84, passed away January 27, 2025. He was preceded in death by his parents, Adam and Ann Stevenson; and brother, Richard. He is survived by his wife, Henrietta; brother, John (Colleen) Stevenson; children, Amy (Cuau Sandoval) Stevenson, Laurie (Keith Sprochi) Stevenson, and Adam (Victoria) Stevenson; and grandchildren, Allison, Beatrice, Madeleine, Annabelle, Adam, and Margot, as well as many nieces and nephews. After graduating from Norwin High School, Irwin, PA, and the University of Pittsburgh with a chemical engineering degree, he began his 38 year career with PPG Industries. He started as a process engineer trainee at Pittsburgh and Springdale, PA, then Houston, TX, Cleveland, OH, Circleville, OH, and retired from Delaware, OH as Director of Manufacturing and Distribution. Adam came to love Delaware and offered his time and talent to the community. In past years, he was a member of Circleville Kiwanis, Delaware Rotary, board member for Grady Hospital and Delaware County Bank. Fly fishing was his favorite hobby as well as gardening and raising orchids. He always enjoyed family dinners and get togethers served with ice cream and pie. Viewing will be Sunday, Feb 2nd, 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM and service to follow at Rutherford Funeral Home, 450 W. Olentangy St. Powell, OH. In lieu of flowers, donate to St. Brigid of Kildare School or the Leukemia or Cancer Society.
