“ Sally, Bernie, Pat, and Gary -- How grateful I feel for the privilege I had to know Ailene as I did over the past 35 or so years. She was as much an aunt to me as I ever had, so "Aunt Sadie" seemed the perfect alias for this wonderful friend and (for a while) next-door neighbor. Her lovely demeanor and sweet disposition made being in her presence a wonderful event, and I have countless memories of laughing, talking, eating, and singing with her, and simply loving this virtuous daughter of our Heavenly Father. To know Ailene was truly to love her, a woman who was as guileless as anyone I've ever known. Peace be unto her and unto you all. Hers was truly a life well-lived, and her passing was God's way of finally calling her home. Thanks be unto God for the blessing of a friend and family member like Ailene DuBois Prehm.

“ Sally and Pat, please know that I thought Aunt Ailene was a very special lady and I especially enjoyed her laugh and the way she would say my name with that special emphasis on the second syllable! I don't know that I will be able to travel to the memorial service on Thursday as we are expecting a storm on Wednesday and I am concerned about traffic delays, etc., so if I don't see you I will be saying a prayer for all of you.
