“ Tricia. Although too many years have passed of not getting together as I so wanted to, the thought of Alen's authenticity, kind heart, radiant smile, and exuberant zest for life continues even now to lift saddened hearts, including mine. What a testimony to a positive well lived life. I was honored to know Alan, hope to meet your son, and finally do that long awaited lunch. I ask God to bless you both and hold you in the palm of His hands. He is in control.

“ I'm sorry to hear of Alan's passing on. I know you'll miss him. I remember him as being a really nice guy. I went to elementary through high school with him. I just lost my mother a little over a month ago so I know what you're going through. My sympathies to you all.
