

Albert G. Bisenius

September 4, 2014

Albert G. Bisenius, age 76, of Warsaw, Ohio; died Thursday, September 4, 2014. He passed while recovering from a recent accident in Springfield, Illinois.

He was born in Quincy, Illinois and moved to Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, where he spent the majority of his childhood.

Bert was a computer programmer who worked on contract in various cities throughout the United States. He also served as a Private in the United States Army.

Bert was an avid collector of everything- from kids to vans- and had a broad array of interests that included reading, baseball, physics, economics, alternative medicine and solar energy.

He is survived by his partner of 23 years, Stephanie Taylor; his six children: Mark Bisenius, Anne Bisenius (Rod Black), Jim (Janelle) Bisenius, Rebecca Bisenius (Chad Saucedo), Erin Bisenius (Ralph Eberspacher), and Eric Bisenius; his siblings: Sue (Tom) Heirl, Nick (Jean) Bisenius, Joe (Kathy) Bisenius; his grandchildren: Mason Saucedo and Makayla Saucedo; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Gerald Bisenius; his mother Mary Eleanor Bisenius; and his sister Eleanor Bisenius.

The viewing and burial will be private. Friends are invited to join a Celebration of Life to be held Thursday, September 11, 2014 at 2:00 PM at his daughter's home in Worthington, Ohio. In lieu of flowers or gifts, donations will gladly be accepted by the Hope Now organization: www.hopenowfurniturebank.org.
