“ I feel very fortunate to have been able to spend some with Berta while we shopped for furnishings for her apartment at Northland Senior Village. Berta had the most interesting life as a young woman, growing up in the Oakland Park area when farmland was the dominate feature. Hwy 71 had not been built so the area was interconnected to Clintonville. Berta's family had a farm in the area and she grew up working on this farm. One of her favorite memories was going to the skating rink at Oakland Park and Westerville Road. She was a loving wife to her husband Ronnie for whom she cared for through his entire life.
