

Alex James Friedman

December 13, 1995 - April 13, 2016

FRIEDMAN

Alex Friedman passed away at home on the early morning of April 13, 2016. He was 20 years old and grew up in Dublin, Ohio.

He is survived by his loving parents Mark and Sara Friedman and his siblings Nick, Lindsay and Kate, as well as a myriad of loving grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. He loved them all.

That's how this should be written.

But who are we kidding? Just like you Alexander, we're going to do this a different way.

Alex deserves an obituary worthy of his life and legacy. He mattered and he'd want do things his way – the fun way.

He loved the people in his life, God, and constantly sought the thrill of competition. He had natural talent, intelligence and the ability to make you laugh, even when it's the last thing you wanted to do. He was unpredictable, witty and a perpetual surprise. He would say the unexpected and he was always there when it mattered most with a bear hug only he could master. Alex had his own problems but when wrapped up in his arms, the ones who loved him knew they were taken care of.

Alex was an adventurer, a brother, a son, a cousin, a grandson, a friend, a teammate. He loved his family and friends as hard as they loved him.

But, that's not the point here. We're aiming for something Alex would actually say. A man of few words and an extreme dislike for any writing what so ever, he would keep it short and simple, swagger of course included. That mischievous ornery smile.

Alex, your soul is already with our Lord Jesus Christ. We will never forget you and your spirit will always be with us.

God has finally relieved your burden.

Family will receive friends on Monday, April 18, 2016 from 2:00 – 4:00 PM and 6:00 – 8:00 PM at the RUTHERFORD FUNERAL HOME AT POWELL 450 W. Olentangy Street Powell, Ohio 43065. “ Mark and Sara

I want to let you know how sorry I am to here about Alex. I never got to actually coach Alex or have him in class but he would always say hi and stop to talk to me in the hall at Coffman. Having coached Nick and Lisa I always felt I missed out coaching the youngest Friedman. I will keep you and your family in my prayers.

“ Dear Mark, Sara, Lindsay, Nick and Kate,
Our hearts are broken. You all are in our thoughts and prayers. Alex was a beautiful young man. I will never forget his presence, love and support for our family when Emily passed away. We were all very touched when he and Gunner drove all the way up to Toledo for Emily's calling hours. Recently, Chloe had the pleasure of visiting Alex and he was there for her, comforting her and being the amazing young man that he was. I know Alex is around all of you now and in the loving arms of Jesus Christ. He will be greatly missed. We will keep you in our prayers daily.

God Bless You All,

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you. I'm saddened to hear the loss of someone with so much life to give us. I will always remember coaching Alex with my son in DYA basketball when they were young. Alex was always so athletic and would make that one shot that you didn't expect a child that young to make.

Please know you have so many friends out there like me to lean on.

Sincerely,
