

Alex Brady Linard

October 24, 1994 - March 17, 2018

Alex Brady Linard, 23, of Dublin, Ohio passed away on March 17, 2018. Alex was born on October 24, 1994 in Columbus, Ohio to W. Brady and Deborah Linard. Alex was a 2013 graduate of Dublin Jerome High School and currently enrolled at The Ohio State University pursuing his business degree. Alex is survived by his father, W. Brady Linard; mother, Debbie Linard; sister, Shannon Linard; grandparents, Harry and Melinda Rader; several aunts, uncles and cousins; nephew, Carter and his beloved dog "Bentley". Alex is preceded in death by his grandmother, Mary Linard; grandfather, Frederick "Hank" Linard; Uncle, Hank Linard; and aunt Mary Beth Linard-Klamar. "Our love for our son and his love for us was more than most could dream of. The fact that a 23 year old young man would drop what he was doing and change his plans to run off to a concert, watch the Buckeyes or have dinner with his family was the life we lived and how we miss him so already. Alex touched so many lives with his infectious smile and love for his family and friends. We were all so blessed to have him in our lives. In honor of Alex's memory we ask that you wear purple, which was Alex's favorite color." Family will receive friends on Thursday, March 22, 2018 from 2:00 – 8:00 PM at the RUTHERFORD FUNERAL HOME AT POWELL 450 W. Olentangy Street Powell, Ohio 43065. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Friday, March 23, 2018 at 10:00 AM at ST. JOAN OF ARC CATHOLIC CHURCH 10700 Liberty Road Powell, Ohio 43065 with Father James Black and Father Charles Cotton as Celebrants. Memorial contributions may be made to the Alex Linard Memorial Scholarship Fund on Go Fund Me Account Facebook.

“ Brady and Family,

We recently learned of your loss and wanted to reach out and extend our most sincere condolences. Although, we trust it brings little solace in the moment, we have every confidence that Alex's soul is in God's hands and he is in a far greater place than this. We will pray for his soul and your family always and often. God bless.

To Brady, Debbie, and family and friends of Alex. I met Alex on maybe 3 occasions when he was with his Dad at a Realtor event. He was always so cordial and I just remember his genuine smile and courtesy. I just left the funeral this morning and there was not a dry eye in the entire church. The love for Alex and his mom and dad and family was so evident this morning as it was at his showing yesterday too. My heart ❤️ literally felt like it broke in two watching Brady support a very distraught Debbie as they managed their way down the aisle behind Alex's casket. Brady's strength at this time has been unbelievable to witness. His ability to make a church full of mourners laugh at his cute stories of Alex was nothing short of amazing. They raised the kind of son every parent hopes and dreams of and in this moment of horrible sadness, the strength of Alex himself must have been what held his father in check to be able to carry on and give witness to why Alex must have been the amazing young man he was. The pain of a mother who bore the most precious life to then have to say good bye so soon was literally heart wrenching. I know Alex will be watching over and protecting his mom and dad just as they watched over and loved and protected him for 23 years. God Bless the Linard and Rader family and may they draw strength from all who love them. RIP ALEX BRADY LINARD. You left behind quite an impression for all.

“ Dear Brady & Deb, I'm so grateful to consider you both dear friends as well as your extended family. Though I cannot imagine this very difficult time, I can clearly see where this young man got his zest for life and kindness I've read about so many times the last couple of days. We as your friends love you so much. Please lean on us just as you would expect us to lean on you if we needed to. God is amazing. We know without a doubt that Alex has touched his beautiful hands and now is in true paradise eternally!
