“ I just tried to find Alex by Googling his name. So sorry to see that he has passed.

Alex was a good friend when we lived in Albuquerque and then we lost contact after he left the Dallas area. I remember so many good times we had and, although it was a long time since we last spoke, I often thought of Alex and wish we had kept in touch. He was truly one of the good guys! Rest peacefully my friend.

“ So sorry to here about Alex. We ran in the same crowd when Anchor assembled meetings. Always had a smile and had no problem polishing off 2-3-4 steaks. All the best to the family in this Christmas Season and into the New Year.

“ Alex was a true friend to all. I remember him first as an athlete at Norwalk High. I was a sports writer at the time. Over the years, we played a lot of golf together. I coined him the "Mad Russian", a monicker that stuck with him for 50 years. Everyone is a better person for knowing Alex. He will be missed. Sincerest sympathy to Patsy, Steve and Travis. I will do my best to get to Woodlawn on Friday to say my goodbye to one of my best friends.

“ I was sorry to hear that Alex passed away. I knew him since grade school and always admired his athletic ability. Since reconnecting at recent Norwalk High School reunions, I sure enjoyed his company, and was happy to hear he and Patsy were happily married. My wife Ellen and I send our heartfelt condolences to you Patsy, and to the whole family.
