

Alfred Robertson

April 9, 1932 - September 24, 2019

Alfred Robertson Jr., “Papa,” “Daddy,” “Junebug,” 87, passed away September 24, 2019. He was the much-loved husband of Billie Jean (Bryant) Robertson, father of Sharon (Charles) Honacher, Sheila (Richard) Cottingham, and Beverly Robertson (Thomas Pleban). Papa was also the loving grandfather of Mackenzie (Keith) Kendrick and great-grandfather of Hailey, Holly, and Mason Kendrick. Besides immediate family he is survived by his loving younger sister Stella Mango and numerous nieces and nephews. Born to Alfred and Vangie (Thompson) Robertson in Radnor, West Virginia he was the fifth of eight children. Papa moved his young family from West Virginia to Columbus in 1960, making a life and providing his daughters with the opportunities to succeed. He enjoyed their successes and bragged constantly about them and his wife Jean to anyone who would listen - sometimes in front of them to their embarrassment!

He lived for, and loved his family above all else, enjoying family gatherings and pictures and updates on the great grandkids. He doted on his wife Jean through almost 69 years of marriage. He was a jokester, avid Ohio State football fan, and history buff, enjoying laughing and talking with family, and watching shows of World War II. He also loved recalling his time as a boy, roaming the mountains of West Virginia with his best friend Clifford. Many thanks to the wonderful staff of Mayfair Retirement Village for patiently attending our beloved Papa during this difficult time, as well as the kind and compassionate care of Capital City Hospice. Cremation has taken place.

“ Dear Bev and Family - Sending warm thoughts and prayers to you and your family, especially to your mother, of course. May the sadness and pain of recent times during his final illness be soon forgotten and you have then only happy memories of him and your times together. No doubt he is now in a better place. Love, Charmaine
