

Alicia J. Hanzo

December 15, 2012

Alicia Jean Hanzo, age 89, of Greeley, Co and formerly of Columbus, died December 15, 2012 at the Hospice of Northern Colorado, in Greeley. Born in Columbus in 1923 to the late Samuel and Mary Moffitt, Alicia was a graduate of Columbus St. Joseph Academy. She married Theodore Hanzo in 1940. A homemaker, Alicia enjoyed spending time with her children and grandchildren. She played bridge, enjoyed doing crossword puzzles, eating chocolate and ice cream and painting ceramics with her friends. Alicia never got a driver's license and depended on her circle of friends for daily outings. She and Ted spent many summers in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. She loved to shop and find bargains. Alicia was a parishioner of Immaculate Conception Church in Columbus for over 79 years. After moving to Greeley, CO following Ted's death in 2002, she was a resident of Beehive Assisted Living and a parishioner of St. Peter's Catholic Church for the past 10 years. In addition to her parents and husband, Alicia is preceded in death by her grandson Daniel Hanzo, her great-grandson Zachary Schmerge and her sister Mary Ann Boehm. She is survived by her children: Theodore "Skip" (JoAnne) Hanzo, III, of Columbus; Mike Hanzo, of Columbus; Terry (Judy) Hanzo, of Pataskala; and Carolyn (Richard) Housden, of Greeley, CO; 12 grandchildren; and 34 great-grandchildren. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 10:15am.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 2013 at IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CHURCH, 414 East North Broadway, Columbus, Ohio 43214. Burial will follow the Mass at Resurrection Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, friends are asked to consider
