

Allison Somers

June 22, 1940 - February 16, 2024

Allison Somers passed away peacefully Friday, February 16, 2024 in her Worthington home. She was born June 22, 1940 in Springfield, OH to John and Vivian (Price) Nutting.

Allison worked as a nurse in local doctors' offices for more than 50 years administering shots and making vials, only retiring in 2020 due to the nationwide lockdown. She built many special and valued relationships with patients, doctors, and peers over nearly six decades of service.

Allison was a talented gardener. Whether her flowers or vegetable garden, she invested a heap of time and love. She also loved family dinners, whether hosting, visiting or special family occasions at Pasqualone's. Tanqueray and Tonic with fresh lime was her signature accompaniment.

Allison is survived by her son Gregg and daughter in law Cindy Somers, as well as daughter and son in law Kris Somers and Doug Corley. She is also survived by grandchildren Cameron and Courtney Somers; niece Amy Hafner and nephews Patrick Field and Todd Robinson.

Allison valued her relationship with God and invested in it with daily prayer. She was preceded in death by her husband Dave Somers and her sister Carolyn (Robert) Robinson.

Gregg and Kris will receive friends and acquaintances from 3:00 – 4:00 pm
Wednesday, March 13, 2024 with a memorial service immediately following at Rutherford-Corbin Funeral Home 515 High St. Worthington, OH.

“ Allison will be missed by our family. When we moved to Worthington in 1979, she and our mutual friend Marlinda, arrived with beef salad sandwiches, pop, etc., for us and the movers. That is when I first met her. Marlinda and I were life time friends. We lived close by so spent many days in their back yard garden. Also, we had made good dinners at the Fontenial in Graceland Shopping Center. They were often out front in the summer so we'd either stop or wave. Jim cut wood with Dave on occasion. Daughter Jenny got her first nursing experience with Allison at Dr. Hughes. Son Jimmy liked swimming there too! They were a team when making the best ribs ever or anyplace! We often said they should start a rib restaurant. Miss both Allison and Dave.

“ i will miss seeing Allison at the bakery. She was always ready with a hug, smile and loving compliments. I'm sad I won't be making her anymore cream pies. Condolences to her family and friends.
