“ I was truly saddend to hear of your loss of our Aunt Sue. When I was a young newly married Navy wife, she would drop me a letter and let me know where she and your Dad had traveled too. She was there when I graduated nursing school... I will remember her laughter, love and kindness. I loved her! Steph

“ Sue was one of those people who it was a pleasure knowing. I first knew her at Indianola Church. Later on, I got to talk to her more while we were in a Sewing Guild at the hospital. She was so delightful. Sincerely, Phyl

“ Dear Conway family, Although not personally knowing Ms. Conway or your family, I want to extend my condolences for your loss. It seems that many never take to time to show concern for others, even persons that we do not know, during difficult times. It is my hope that you gain strength from the God of comfort that comforts us during our tribulation as mentioned at 2 Corinthians 1:3-4. He soon promises that this evil menace “death” will be no more (Revelation 21:3-4). I hope that your family gains comfort from one another and the promises that we can rely on in God’s Word.
