“ Dear family, Our deepest sympathy on the passing of a very wonderful lady. My favorite memories are the many times we shared laughter and good food with the swim team and our children's activities at De Sales. The fun times with Angie teaching Terry and me how to make Egg Rolls from scratch. God bless and keep you all in HIs loving care and know that Heaven is celebrating her arrival.

“ I was totally in shock when I heard about Angie's passing. We all loved her and her smiles at our Bible discussion sessions. She was so upbeat and cheerfull. Since she and I had a couple of mutual friends we usually were whispering to each other after the sessions. This past Monday, a sweet and loving STAR went up to heaven to be with our Lord. I will miss you very much Angie, our telephone conversations, your contributions to our Bible sessions, delicious desserts, your chuckles and smiles.

My condolences and prayers to Rolly, Aileen's family and Leslie.

“ Rolly, Leslie, Aileen, Rich and Amelia...

we are so sad. We lost a part of our heart and the world a precious person with a precious soul.

Angie, you called me your "sis" and I am so glad and proud that you did so and so do I- sis.

Please embrace Tony, my beloved husband and your brother.

You now can enjoy his jokes again. I miss already our Skype-chats and the profound and amusing conversations and your warmhearted personality.

...and the pain is as tremendous as my father passed away. Auntie I loved you so much. In many things you showed similarity with my daddy and this helped me a lot but now the loss cannot be described.

We regret that we were not able to see you again in life.

We will follow your advice that you gave us a few days ago:

Enjoy life we never know when we are called.

“ Dear Angie: We are deeply saddened by your unexpected passing and our profound sympathy and condolence go to Rolly and your family. Our friendship has not been that long – just since you moved to the Columbus area in 2010 – but somehow Al and I feel like we’ve known you for a long time. We will not forget how we first met face-to-face ; we invited you to a Frank Sinatra night at La Scala where we shared what seemed to be a common interest – dining and dancing. You then invited us to Azteca where you shared with us your passionate interest on Hispanic culture and travel. Since then, our shared memories wrap around our MOT prayer group – the hosting, the Rosary, the singing, the praying, the Bible reading and sharing and discussions, the dining. You warmly welcomed us to your beautiful home when you hosted the prayer meeting. One time we were at your house from 3:00 p.m. to midnight; in our conversations we practically covered all topics. When you told me that your favorite song was “Pescador de Hombres”, Al excitedly wrote down the chords so he could play it for you. Whether we were in OH or FL we continued to communicate by telephone and email. You will be terribly missed, Angie. As we pray for the eternal repose of your soul and imagine you to be in the warmth and light and love of our Lord, we thank God for your beautiful life and for having shared a portion of it with me and Al.
