“ Chris and Family, I saw Connie at Cranbrook and she told me your mother had recently died after her long, tough battle with cancer. I know the sadness and loss that you must be feeling. Her suffering has gone and all your wonderful memories of your mom will last forever. Sincerely, Arden

“ Dear Campbell family, Although not personally knowing Ms. Campbell or your family, I want to extend my condolences for your loss. It seems that many never take to time to show concern for others, even persons that we do not know, during difficult times. It is my hope that you gain strength from the God of comfort that comforts us during our tribulation as mentioned at 2 Corinthians 1:3-4. He soon promises that this evil menace “death” will be no more (Revelation 21:3-4). I hope that your family gains comfort from one another and the promises that we can rely on in God’s Word.

“Connie, So sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. I certainly can understand the loss you feel. I remember only too well the loss of my own mother. I can assure you each hour gets better and each day allows you to remember the wonderful times you spent with her. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during your time of duress. May God's arms wrap you in them until you can stand strong again. Take care Lovingly Carolyn Hughes
