“ Dear Crerands, I was so sorry to hear this morning of the passing of your Mother and Grandmother. God bless her sweet old soul, God rest her. She was truly admirable, truly loving, truly funny. Truly a lady, in that now-forgotten usage. I'm so happy that she passed peacefully, and at home, in one of the welcoming homes her children made for her.

God rest her. I'm truly sorry for your loss, and am reminded of our long near-family association, and all the good times and bad times we've shared. Love, Rich
