“ I have so many fond memories of my Aunt.. My father, her brother had just been taken into emergency bypass surgery and she was on a plane that night to come and be with my mother and I lol we sent my husband to the airport to pick her up and hours went by and they weren't back finally when she made it to the hospital she had told us they were landing here in okc and hit bad weather or turbulence I can't exactly remember and had to divert the landing and I believe fly all the way to Dallas.. I will also remember the many visits both us going to Buffalo and Ohio and them coming here to Oklahoma one time stands out in my mind lol they test our tornado sirens every Saturday at noon here in Oklahoma and Ain't Anne and Uncle Jerry we're outside on the deck by the pool and we said oh crap must be a tornado mind you it was sunny and not a cloud in the sky 🙇♀️ Lol don't think that one went over well 😭 my father has shared so many stories throughout the years of his memories of he and his twin brother and how they loved telling their sister good morning lol from what dad says that never went over well either. My father loved his sister and when I was born decided that I'd share a middle name with her it made him so proud ❤️ I love ya Aunt Anne Marie you are at peace now ☐
