

Anne S. "Wardlaw" Belter

April 6, 2013

Anne S. (Wardlaw) Belter, 96 of Columbus, died Saturday, April 6, 2013. Member of Summit United Methodist Church. Preceded in death by husband, Raymond H. Belter, parents Jesse & Angeline (Peckham) Wardlaw, brothers, Bob, Willis, George and James Wardlaw. Survived by sons, Richard of Columbus; Thomas (Judy) of Georgetown, TX & Gary (Arlene) of Columbus; grandchildren, Jennifer (Victor) Colon of Dallas, TX; Jason (Naime) Belter of Ramstein, Germany; Steven Belter of Houston, TX; Krista Belter of Columbus, Sarabeth (Benjamin) Collins of Columbus and Keith Urban of Columbus; great grandchildren, Kaitlyn & Connor Colon, Alihan & Aleya Belter, Aiden & Alec Belter, Hazel & Henry Collins and Bryden Urban; many nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews. Anne was a treasure and Matriarch to the family. Her steadfast devotion to family was unparalleled and her faith and trust in God undeniable. Funeral services will be held at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, April 13, 2013 at RUTHERFORD CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 High Street, Worthington where friends may call from 6-8 p.m. Friday. Burial: Union Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ Anne S. "Wardlaw" Belter

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ Dick, Sorry to hear of your Mom. It sounds like she lived a very full life, even if she did haave to put up with you. Cindi and I send you our heartfelt simpathy. Warmest Regards, Jeff

Jeff Stewart - April 09, 2013 at 12:00 AM