“ Where do I begin ... Annette was my second mom . I've known her since I was 5 years old . She always let me wash the dishes for her . She had the biggest heart I know! Loved her laugh 😄 She was there for us when my dad had a heart attack and we lived with them for over a month! I'm sorry that Mark and Michael never told me she had passed . I would of been there to say goodbye ! I miss you so much Annette ! I know
Your with my parents . God bless

“ I met Annette, in 1985, through my friendship with, her son , Mark. Little did I know that a just a few years later, she, would become my beautiful, wonderful, fabulous mother-in-love! Annette is & will always remain the secret treasure that I carry deep in my heart. Kindred spirits without a doubt. I have always been especially pleased, that she & my own mother, Marilyn Ross, were kindred as well! I am forever grateful for her numerous gifts of her support, unconditional love, & protection. Praise God from whom all blessings flow for allowing my path in this life to connect & cross deeply with her own beautiful spirit. Love you madly! Forever In my heart. Until we meet again.

“ It is so hard to explain the impact that my “sister’s mother-in-law” has had on my life. That sounds like quite the extended relationship, but Annette was always like my favorite aunt and dear friend. Strong, but all sweetness and love. A beautiful woman with a beautiful soul. She will be missed here by me, and so so so many others. But I know that we all remain connected somehow — on both sides of the veil. And I know my Mom was so excited to greet Annette in Heaven! You had better believe that they’re looking out for all of us and shopping for some incredible finds & great deals at the very best flea markets in Heaven! Reading voraciously, too! And laughing together! God be with our Moms and our Dads in Heaven. And God bless those working hard to carry on their legacies here on earth: Mark, Michael, Kathe, Karen & Joe, Jennifer, Steven & Ayden, Amy & Chris, Troy & Bailey, Jeff, Jessica & Judy, and Tammy. And God bless the rest of Annette’s family and friends. I may know you all, but I know that you are all special and important to Annette Aneshansley. And that is recommendation enough for me.

“ Where do I even begin to explain the impact Annette had on my life? She taught me things that I didn't know I didn't know. Who else could teach me the importance of having a pickle fork and all the other correct utensils when entertaining? Who else could show me how to clean silk flowers by shaking them in a grocery bag with salt? Who else showed us how to close up the holes in our homemade buckeyes so they were perfect every time? No one other than Annette. She taught me all of this and so much more. I'm going to miss going to her house at Christmas and wrapping a mountain of gifts from QVC, most of which she'd forgotten who she bought them for. I'm going to miss watching cooking shows and our British shows we loved. I'm going to miss her sense of humor, which never failed her even at the end. I'm going to miss her kind heart and generous spirit. She was the best mother and grandmother you could ask for, a completely unique and special individual. I love you Annette and will never forget you. Love always, your daughter

“ To explain just how much my second mother means to me is an impossible task, but, Annette was one of the strongest, bravest, and kindest humans to grace this planet. Without her, I wouldn't be here today, I wouldn't be the person I am, and I wouldn't have a sense of family. She is everything to me, and more, and there's no way I could ever quantify the importance she's held in my life. Annette was the best mother, grandmother, great grandmother, friend, counselor, and teacher of life to so many that anyone could ask for or hope to meet. Thank you, Annette, for everything. Your guidance, your compassion, your baking skills, your no-nonsense knowledge of life has grounded me, and taught me many lessons. You always made me a part of your life and family. For that, I am forever grateful. You will be forever missed. I am honored to have been so loved by you. To all of your friends, family and loved ones, know that Anette is finally resting at peace with her loved ones who are already in Heaven. Let us rejoice in that thought, as so many are mourning her passing. This mourning dove is nesting on the porch where I am staying. Thank you Annette for showing me the power of love! Again, it was an absolute honor to be called your daughter!
With love, Tamara Poston (Tammi Sandham)
