

Annette E. Swanberg

October 21, 2014

SWANBERG

Annette Elizabeth Swanberg passed away suddenly on Tuesday, October 21, 2014, in Hilliard, Ohio. Beloved daughter, wife, mother, sister, aunt, she is now in the warm and loving arms of our Lord. Annette was born January 17, 1948, to John and the late Mildred Swanberg in Kingsley, Iowa, the first of three children. She graduated from Iowa State University and worked in Michigan before moving to Los Angeles, California, where she earned an MBA from Pepperdine University and ran her own business. She is survived by her father, her husband Charles Allen and daughter Claire Allen, sister Janelle and brother JC, aunt Darleen and cousins Diane and Suzanne, and many beloved nieces and nephews.

Annette was a passionate reader, published author, gourmet chef, accomplished quilter and knitter, an active Ohio Master Gardener, a dedicated member of her church and a loving friend to all.

A Celebration of Life will be held Tuesday, October 28, 2014, at 7:30 p.m. led by the Rev. Bob Tussing and Pastor Lisa Bowersock at Dublin Community Church, 81 Bridge Street, Dublin, Ohio. Friends may visit from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Dublin Community Church, abiding memorial, in her memory.

Tribute Wall

“ Annette E. Swanberg

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ Annette was a great leader and wonderful Master Gardener friend. My heart goes out to her family and close friends. She leaves a legacy...

Theresa Merva-Sico - October 28, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ To all of Annette's family, I have many good memories of my classmate Annette as I am sure that you, as family, also have. May you hold the best of memories near always. Annette was always able to find humor in the day to day activities of our high school days. That is a trait I am sure continued in her life.

Bob Irwin - October 27, 2014 at 12:00 AM