“ *I have many fond memories visiting Mr. Woods. We would sit and talk about anything and everything. I especially remember seeing the beautiful birdhouses he made and how he loved feeding the animals that would come into the yard. He was a kind and friendly man that will be missed by many. “ Art was such a great man and a wonderful friend for many years. I have missed seeing him since he moved from Long Branch. He was a regular with the gang of friends at Ronny's Garage. Art was a talented craftsman and could make anything. He was always willing to lend a hand. Sad that he is gone but he will never be forgotten. Our condolences to the whole family.
