“ In 6th grade a girl approached me. She looked shy and I wasn't social so I didn't say anything. She said, "am I Hispanic or Indian!?" ...I looked at her with shock, "I- I think you look Hispanic." I said. She smiled big, said I was right, and we became partners that day in class.

Whenever I think about that day it brings a smile to my face knowing that, that day, we would be friends for years to come. And now. While everything seems bleak and sorrowful, that memory makes me a smile at how I first met Ashley. She was my first friend at Orange. My only friend. And my very last there. I pray for you all in the morning, think about her all day, and pray for you guys at night. I'm so sorry for your loss, I only knew her a few years..I can't imagine if I had known her for 16 years. Condolences For the whole Centeno family...and Max.

“ My son had gone to school with Ashley since elementary school and we live in the same neighborhood. I will always remember her as a kind and sweet little girl from the years that I spent in the classroom and school. Our hearts are broken and we will keep you all in our continued prayers for strength, acceptance and peace.

“ Condolences for the loss of your beautiful daughter. I did not know Ashley, but I've had 2 daughters graduate from Orange and another that is currently a freshman so Ashley's death effects all in the the school community. My heart goes out to your family for this tremendous loss. May God give you strength during this unbelievably difficult time. Regards
