Auvil was born in Fraziers Bottom, West Virginia, the son of the late Ashton and Alma (Byus) Jackson, and the second of four siblings. He served in the Army during World War II, and after returning home he honed his craft as a carpenter, ending his career as a 20-year employee of Nationwide Insurance Company.

He is preceded in death by his beloved wife of more than 64 years, Marilyn; his brother Eugene Jackson; and his sisters Reba Hoffman and Violet Dunlap.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made in Auvil's name to the hospice organization that provided excellent care and support: ProMedica Foundations, 444 N. Summit St., Toledo, Ohio 43604. The ProMedica Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, and all contributions are tax-deductible.

“ We were closer to Mr. & Mrs. Jackson than we were to some of our blood relatives. Always enjoyed time spent with them, wish I had reached out more often. One of my favorite memories of Mr. Jackson was when I was working an election and he told me his middle name but made sure I knew I wasn't to tell anyone else what it was. Thinking of all of you.
