“ Growing up next door to the Dickeys is something I will always cherish. Barb always had a smile on her face and took time to ask me how school and life were going. I always knew I had love and support from her and know I always will. Sending my love today, even though I cannot be at the service. I'm so sorry for your loss and thinking of you all during this difficult time.

“ I met Barb when I was transferred from Columbus to Orlando in 1987. We worked in the same department except she was in home office of Nationwide Insurance. We became good friends and I will always cherish her friendship. She would talk about Glenn and Matthew all the time. She was a loving mother and wife. My sincere condolences to Glenn, Matthew and the rest of the family. I will never forget her. She is singing in God’s choir now.
