“It’s all good!” We can still hear Barb saying that with a sparkle in her eyes and a smile on her face! Barb was a truly special person blessed with an exceptionally positive outlook and fun-loving spirit. She cared deeply about the children, families, and staff at Colonial Hills Care After School. She exuded energy and dedication and planned incredibly creative experiences for all to enjoy! We extend our deepest sympathies and hope that you take comfort in knowing that Barb touched the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing her. We hope in time you find peace and “it’s all good!” for your family.

“ Dear Family, We just heard from Lisa Pacifico about your heartbreaking loss. We are deeply saddened. Barb was such a dear, sweet, kind and loving person. She always helped with Girl Scout camping trips and could be counted on to pitch in and really make things fun and easy. I still remember her working so hard on the little fairies we made one year for Thinking Day. Thanks to her, we had lots to sell, and they were beautiful. Our hearts go out to you all. We are so sorry. Love from,
Carolyn, Mark, Tommy and Tory Lee
