“ I am sadden by the loss of Barb. She was a dear person. She was fiesty and had a great sense of humor, both qualities I admire. She was always willing to help and extremely knowledgable about her job and she was intuned to getting things done. I was fortunate to know Barb and words cannot convey how she touched my life and the impression that will remain until I pass from here.

“ August 28, 2010 Dear Barb, thank you for being a part of our family for so many years. I love you for being so great to Linda, and making here life complete. There are in the end, three things that last, faith, hope and love, and the greastest of these is Love. You will be missed but never forgotten. With love, your brother-in-law, bruce.
