“ None of you will know me but Barbara was my best girlfriend throughout grade and high school in Bexley. We spent many fun times together with her family at their cabin at Buckeye Lake. When her brother, Dick, got to drive the 57 Chevy Convertible he had to take us to school. A chore he didn't think too well of in those days. I had tried to reconnect with her through Facebook and Classmates.com but hadn't been able to do so. I am extremely sorry for your loss. Susan Perry, New Braunfels, TX
