“ Thinking of you during this difficult anniversary. Please know Bea was a good coworker and employee. She was someone you could count on and she was honest. I was glad to know her.

“ I wanted to express my sadness when I heard of Bea's homegoing. I worked with her at Wesley Glen in the Activity department. She had a quiet dignity about her and I always worked hard to earn her respect. One birthday, the residents and I made her a birthday cake. We used the wrong type of flour and it didn't rise. She was so kind about it. It tasted awful, but she ate it anyway and was genuinely appreciative of our efforts. I will miss Bea. She was a good woman. I'm excited to reunite with her one day in Heaven.

“ To Kenneth, Yvette, Gerald, and all of the family of Bea Edwards. I was shocked and saddened to learn of Bea's death. I had spoken with her most recently on "Senior Sunday" at St. John AME, and I thought she was looking so well. Although I was acquainted with Bea for a very long time, it was in the years since her husband died that she and I had interacted more in a personal way. She and I shared a table on several occasions of the St. John AME Mother's Day tea. And on Sundays I always looked to see if she was in her pew in the center rear of the church. If so, I would go and speak with her. And on Family and Friends Day at church, I had the opportunity to introduce Bea to my husband. So I reach out to all of you at this difficult time, and send my heartfelt sympathies. May God bless you all now and in the days ahead.
