“ I only knew Ben for a short time, my son (Conor) was at the Hillman House with Ben in the spring. Ben was a great kid with an engaging personality. I can't imagine the loss you must feel from his absence. My son Conor notified me of his passing and he has been pretty quiet for the past 24 hours since knowing about Ben's passing. I know Ben meant a lot to Conor even though he only knew him for a short time. Conor is still battling his addiction and I can only hope he finds strength through knowing Ben. My thoughts and prayers to Ben's family in this difficult time.

“ Kathy, Ardie and Jack, Our deepest sympathy and love to you all! We will remember the good memories of Ben with his great smile that lit up the room and his kindness to us every time we were around him. We knew him from the day he was born and know the happiness he brought you, Aunt Chis and Grandma Jean. He will always be in your hearts and in ours as well. May God take care of Ben and bless you all!

“ I just read about your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. Death is always sad, but even more so when it takes the life of someone so young and with so much life ahead. Reflecting on the promises found in the pages of the Bible of the time when we can see our lost loved ones again right here on a paradise earth, when sickness, suffering and death will all be things of the past, can bring some measure of comfort to your hearts. (John 5:28,29; Rev. 21:3,4; Isaiah 25:8) Please know that "God is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves."(Psalms 34:18) May the "God of all comfort" be with you.

“ Dear Kathy, I am truly sorry for the events that took place. Ben was a very good friend to me and had such a kind heart. I regret leaving Ohio because I missed out on so much this past year and a half. I would love to come back from Minnesota and pay my respects. I send my condolences to you, Jack and everyone else who was close to him. I know Ben is in a better place where pain does not exist and that he is watching over us and keeping us safe. I will always remember you, Ben and I will cherish the good times we spend together. -Nick
