“ I worked with Beth last year and at the beginning of this year. She was a pistol, strong-worded, and fierce, and I adored her. She protected me when I was so pregnant I could hardly stand. She watched me like a hawk, and always had my back. She was funny and biting. I was absolutely shocked to hear of her passing and will always remember her. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Tim and Eric, We are truly saddened by Beth's passing and you have our deepest sympathy. Vicky and Stephen Klementowicz

I had recently moved to Columbus and met Beth at work. Beth invited me into her home to meet her cat, Arthur, and have a cup of tea and in one short afternoon, I knew I'd have a life-long friend. Beth was an amazing friend and I cherished her. Beth made me laugh and think about things in new ways and she opened up a different world to me when she shared stories about her past. Beth was kind, sensible, funny, understanding, honest and real and I loved her for all of those things. Eric and Tim, you are in my thoughts. Vicky
