“ "Cookie" was one of the first people I met when starting my teaching at Laguna Beach High School (1968)~ We remained best friends throughout our lifetime...she gave my daughters, Mario (ex-husband), and me the greatest welcoming whenever we were together. My fondest memories were meeting at McDonald's with our children over breakfast, chatting, laughing, planning while our kids threw pancakes on the floor! Viva la vida loca, Cookie!

“ Jim and Cindy and families, I received the information about Cookie from Lonna and I just wanted you to know how often, through the years, I have thought of Cookie and all the great times I had with her and your family. She was such a special person, not only in my life , but in all those she touched. I will always remember her with the fondest of memories. Love to you all. Paul
