

Betty E. Kozar

May 18, 1921 - April 11, 2020

Beatrice Kozar (nee Habat) age 98, died April 11, 2020. Born May 18, 1921 to John and Anna (Urbanija) Habat, she was the beloved wife of Stanley (deceased) as well as her second husband, Clarence Cole (deceased). She was preceded in death by her brothers John, Herman and Edward and her sister Anna. She is survived by her loving children Stanley (Carol), Judi (John) Ungashick, Laurie (Rod) Hummel, Greg (Sheila) and Richard (Robert Stearns, deceased); 11 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. A devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, we will always remember her loving spirit, generosity, and sense of humor. Mom loved her Slovenian heritage and was always happy baking her delicious potica or strudel while listening and singing to her favorite polkas. We also called her the Quilting Queen due to the hundreds of beautiful quilts she made over the years. A devoted Catholic we know she is in heaven with God and her family.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to St. Mary's Collinwood Church, 15519 Holmes Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44110.

“ Betty was a most caring person. I enjoyed the times we had lunch together. She gave me a quilt when Clarence (I cannot remember what his name was) died and I use it to this day. Now it is a memorial to her.

I would like to included in the memorial service for her.

God bless your new saint in Heaven and the family which is now with her. God bless everyone.
