“ Young man: You were lucky to have enjoyed a lifetime of memories with this beautiful lady. When you think of your time with her, stop for just a second and think of the other guy's like me who lived, so far, now 71 years without a true loved one. You were blessed by our maker and I for one of your male friends, insist that when you pull up those wonderful memories of the TWO of you together, How lucky you were. Love like you two had is extremely rare and God will always keep the two of you as one. Savour the memories as that's what our maker wants you to live by for the rest of your days on earth to each the younger ones, how to respect and love. God Bless you our friend! Sincerely Paul Cain.

Sue was sweet and gentle but very persistent. She is the only human being who could talk me into walking on cement floors at the Eagles for hours selling "Queens" or "Double" bingo cards for Special Olympics, twice! Hard to imagine Special Olympic events without her. She is in my prayers.
