“ Rest in Peace my sister in Christ. Dear Lord be with Bev's family give them comfort in there time of need. Amen. I remember in church Bev always had the biggest smile and always seemed filled with joy. Her life on earth was so meaningful she gave so much of herself to others. I will miss seeing that smile Beautiful Bev. Psalm 23 God Bless all who knew and are honoring this wonderful lady. Godspeed

“ Peltons, Fletchers, Coons, Manos and all else connected to Bev through blood or experience, we are so sorry for your loss. Aunt Bev was always had a friendly face to greet everyone! We are eternally grateful for our time with her, Uncle David and all the cousins for the 50th Anniversary party. We were sad to hear of her passing today but are thankful that she (and and all of you) didn't have to endure the anguish of watching someone you love go through that. Our prayers are with you all for peace and in finding a new normal without her. Hugs to you all.
