“ Our condolences and prayers of comfort extend to family and friends as you work through your grief. We are so very sorry to have missed Mr. Hunkins memorial. I (Linda) always called him Mr. Hunkins, it just seemed like the right thing to do. It wasn't his requirement; his presence just engendered respect. Mr. Hunkins' communion devotions during church were always thoughtful and insightful. He now leaves his legacy of a stalwart Christian gentleman, a full-fledged member of The Greatest Generation, for Family and Friends
