“ Bonnie Lou Patrick

“ Bonnie and her mother were my next door neighbors in the 1960's. My Mom would walk my sister to school and Bonnie had the job of keeping me occupied. I was 3 or 4 at the time and I remembering throwing tantrums -yelling and kicking and screaming. There was sweet Bonnie trying to interest me in watching cartoons. Finally I gave in and Bonnie and I watched cartoons until my Mom came back. A few years later Bonnie and her Mom moved to Upper Arlington and we lost track of one another. Then in the 1980's we were reunited again. My sister Marcia and Bonnie had so many adventures: Going to movies, eating out. Marcia introduced Bonnie to Wendy's and thus began a lifetime love of the Junior Bacon Cheeseburger and Vanilla Frosty. Through the years we took Bonnie on many adventures. Eating out, going to Church, going to the Oh State Fair, going to the zoo and her favorite shopping at Wal-Mart. When we traveled I called us the handicap brigade , Mom, Marcia, and Bonnie all had a handicap and I was the driver. After I lost my sister and Mom, I took Bonnie out on most major holidays. I will miss her sweet disposition and smile. She was truly our adorable Princess.

Karen Lones - April 13, 2018 at 10:20 PM

Karen, I am a half sister to Bonnie, we shared the same father. I was always searching for her but I figured she carried a married last name and that I would never have found her. Oh what I would have given to meet and know her. She has that sweet Patrick smile we are known for, looking at the picture on her obit. if anyone has any pictures of her and stories to share I would be so grateful. I would love to see any pictures of her mother also. You can reach me by phone: 740-572-7108, or by email: patriciaford3080@att.net, or on Facebook...Patricia Ford I am widowed, and I am 70 yrs old and I live in Washington Court House, Ohio I have a daughter Amanda that actually lives in Hilliard and knows the place where she resided. It just kills me to know she was so close and yet I couldn't find her. I would truly appreciate anything you could offer.
