I lost touch with Brad years back, and last I talked to him was at the old YMCA, we played many, many hours of basketball. Brad was a great guy, and I am a better person having known Brad. Norma, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Trent Anthony, Gloria and Bob Anthony's son.*

“ I CAN'T STOP CRYING. I HAD A CRUSH ON BRAD ALL THRU OUR YEARS AT MALAMAR HIGH. HE AND I USED TO LAUGH AND GET IN TROUBLE FOR CLOWNING AROUND TOGETHER. I RAN INTO HIM AT HOME DEPOT ONE DAY A FEW YEARS AGO....WE STOOD THERE AND TALKED ABOUT "THE GOOD OLD DAYS" FOR NEARLY 2 HOURS. I LOVED HIM SO MUCH AND ALWAYS WILL. GOD BLESS HIS FAMILY. I CANNOT IMAGINE THEIR PAIN. RIP HANDSOME! ALWAYS, PATTY

“ Know that Brad's classmates from the Malabar Class of 1974 share the sadness of your loss. His quick wit, compassion, humor and friendship to all will be missed. I appreciated his help with some of our class reunion activities. His connections to Mansfield and to Malabar were very important to him and he will forever be remembered in our hearts.

“ Dear family members, It was with great regret, that I read of Brad's passing last week. I taught at Johnny Appleseed and Malabar High when Brad was a student and athlete in both locations, and in my classes. Additionally, I knew Brad as a dedicated athlete and young friend. Reading of his commitment to his children and family only underscore the quality person I knew so many years ago. May his love and that of our God help each of you deal with his death, and do remember his memory can remain a vivid part of your life. Larry Lewis

“ Our thoughts are with you at this time of your loss. I know Mr Barber from American General. I am sorry for your loss. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And cause such pain that can be most difficult to bear. The Bible Can Bring Comfort when we lose a loved one. While you are grieving, maybe some of these scriptures will comfort you. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4. Acts 17:31. Psalm 119:50, 52, 76. “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.”— John 5:28, 29. The Bible holds out a truly comforting hope. The Scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with your dear loved one in the near future, but under very different conditions, under peaceful, righteous conditions. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. The Wiley family sends our sincere condolences on your loss. C. Wiley

“ Everytime I spoke with Brad, he would always mention the boys and what they were up to. He was such a proud father. He always treated us so well here at the ins. co. I can also still hear his voice... "Kay this is Braaaaaaad." I will miss his humor. He was a good man & it's truly hard to believe that he's gone.
