“ Your Dvd arrived today and I was so pleased to see it included instructions on how to do all your famous ballet moves. I have been guesing at how to train them and made amazing progress after watching it. I felt we were missing something and the gggg fills that gap wonderfully. I loved watching you when you were on Britains got Talent and voted for you to win.

“ Brian, I was so sorry to hear of your passing. I've written to you on the Guestbook at The Columbus Dispatch but wanted to also say something to your family. Tom, Eileen and Steven - I met Brian through Paul and Kim, having worked for both of them for many years. Brian was such a kind young man. Having lost my oldest daughter at the age of 28 due to a motorcycle accident, I have been in your shoes and walk a road that is now in front of you. I can tell you that there are no words to ease your pain. Losing a child (and a sibling) is the most tragic thing that can happen in your lifetime. I pray for your strength as you begin your new life. There is no return to the life you once knew. In your new life you must find new reasons and goals to live for, to carry on in Brian's memory and to hold him close. Stay close to family and friends and open yourselves to their love and strength. Know that Brian is now at peace and let that guide you as you begin a new life. Look to your faith to keep you strong and to guide you in your new life. My prayers for your strength. Shelia Whiteman
