“ To all the Zeiter family whose roots are so very deep to the Baseline area. My thoughts with all of you in staying strong for Brian's family always. As a k-12 student 1976 with Les, all of you are caring, giving persons of which Brian will be missed. Your mother stands strong for all of you to be the same during this God's trial. God bless to all of you..may he give you strength.

“ All of my love to my dear friend Peach and Emily and Daniel. My condolences to the Zeiter-Smith families. I would like to let Mrs. Wanda Zeiter know that I am praying hard for her and her family and that she and her husband raised one heckuva GOOD MAN. I have always respected Peach and Brian; they are GOOD to the core. When my daughter first met Brian she was afraid because of his height and by the end of the visit she was crazy about him. Brian was quiet but I loved to get him to talk because I absolutely LOVED the sound of his voice. Very soothing. My family and I are honored to have been able to call Brian and Peach our friends. Much much love. Bean and Jack and Grace and Lily

“ Dear Peach, I am so sorry for your loss. Years and miles cannot erase the fond memories I have of you. I am unable to fully express the sympathy I have for you and your precious children. May you find comfort in the loving arms of your family and friends during this time and may our prayers give you the strength to endure the next few days with the grace you have always possessed. You are in my heart. Love, Dani

“ My sincere sympathy to you Peach and the kids on the loss of Brian. I enjoyed playing softball with him on the LITTLE BUDS team and he was always the gentle big man to play 1st base for us. I threw many times to him from 3rd as I played there. Also remember the radio man calling basketball games on WTTF when Brian played for the Tornados and heard often "Rebound Zeiter ,up and in." God bless you all . Jim Wurm
