Bruce or "Stubby" as he was know in high school was a wonderful childhood friend. We played Football, Hockey and Baseball together. I have many wonderful memories of Stubby and our comings and goings. A great guy and wonderful friend.

“ To our friend Bryan,

Deepest sympathy, love, and hugs to you and your family.

When Bruce would occasionally stop by Agler Davidson for a visit, I do not recall the specifics of any one conversation. But his genuinely warm smile is firmly imprinted in my memory. I am glad his path crossed mine.

“ A fellow Vol with Bruce during the same four years at UT. He played football and I played baseball the same four years. We became friends while playing summer ball here in Knoxville during the summers he remained in school. I have always thought a lot of Bruce. I was born in Newark, O, in 1934 but moved south while but a child. Bruce and I had a similar work life but never got to share it. Would love to make contact with some family member if possible: earlwells1@comcast.net. Our love, respect and prayers go out to the family and friends.
