“ I'm just now seeing this, I was looking for another obituary but came across this. Mary sold my parents their last house In 1975. They did not think that they would be able to buy a home but Mary worked her magic and they were able to buy one, I'm forever grateful for that. I was also a friend of Mollys in high school, long since lost touch. I remember my parents used to say the same as another wrote that Mary would run the AC with the windows down in the car. I pray for the repose of her soul and peace for the family.

“ So sorry for your loss. Your Mom helped me find my first house back in 1977. She liked to run the A/C with the windows down. She was friends with my mom and dad, Evelyn and John Kerber. Your father and mother introduced my mom and dad to each other. Please accept my condolences.

“ She was always happy to see neighbor kids when we came over to play back in the late 60s. I hope your family is comforted knowing she is with her Lord and her ancestors are their welcoming her.
