

Candace Nelson

December 22, 2009

NELSON Candace (Candy) Lee Nelson, age 59, of Columbus passed away on Tuesday, December 22, 2009. A graduate of Worthington High School in 1968, she lived in and around Worthington for many years. She was an active member of Covenant Baptist Church where she taught Sunday school, worked in Vacation Bible School, helped in the church office, organized the church's annual hayride, and participated in many other church activities. Candy loved to laugh and adored her niece, nephew and grand nephew. Her church had a special place in her heart. She enjoyed travel and took full advantage of living each day. Her strength was an inspiration to many who knew her. Preceded in death by her mother, Helen, and her father Warren, Candy is survived by her siblings, Connie (Rick) Strait of Houston, TX; Brad (Gretchen) Nelson of Mesa, AZ; niece Megan (Ben) Parks of Houston, TX; nephew David (Kelli) Strait, grand nephew Nicholas, Houston, TX and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. A memorial service will be held at 10:30 AM Tuesday, January 5, 2009, at Covenant Baptist Church, 5100 Dierker Rd., Columbus, 43220. In lieu of flowers. Memorial contributions may be made to Covenant Baptist Church. Arrangements by RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 High Street, Worthington, Ohio 43085.

“ Candy was an amazing person. She enjoyed EVERYTHING. She loved life and lived it for every moment of it. She was giving, happy, and loving. I learned a lot from her as a sister, and I will never forget the times we were able to spend together, including our trip to England together. I love you, Candy, and I'm sorry I wasn't able to give you more support during your illness.
